THE 4 KEY ACTIONS

- Ask how someone is — without insisting
- Tell staff if you see something
- Be attentive to signs of discomfort
- Don't look away

HOW TO APPLY IT

Ask how someone is — simply, without insisting. Tell staff or security if you see something. Stay available without playing the hero.

WHY IT MATTERS

Everyone's safety and the group's cohesion. The awareness of belonging to a living community. Knowing that no one is alone.

WHEN TO APPLY IT

When you see someone isolated or struggling. When something seems off. Before you leave the party, look around you.

WHAT THIS CONCRETELY IMPLIES

- Respect personal, physical and emotional space
- Report problematic situations to staff
- Be attentive to signs of discomfort or distress
- Don't look away when someone needs help
- Offer help respectfully, without imposing

LEGAL FRAMEWORK

Organizers have a legal duty of care toward participants (Civil Code of Québec, art. 1457). Each participant is responsible for their own actions.
